1.2 Ministry Staff NOT Eligible for EPFB in Accordance with Tax Ruling 92/17

There are two choices - one uses a limited EPFB and the other no EPFB. Congregations need to consider which is the most effective payment means when the tax component for EPFB is included.

Employee Category	Zone	Ministry Staff Payroll
		Cash Stipend Monthly (1a)	EPFB Monthly (1b)	Superannuation Monthly (1c)	Cash Stipend Fortnightly (1a)	Superannuation Fortnightly (1c)
Clerk of Assembly	Urban	4,689	1,325 *	903	2,164	417
Accredited Ministry Worker (Other Worker)	Urban	2,959	1,325 *	643	1,366	297
		4,815	0	722	2,222	333

* In addition the employing body (congregation or denomination) is required to pay tax on the EPFB component which is approximately $662 per month.

Note: PCQ Regulations require all administrative staff employment conditions to be confirmed by the Church Liaison Officer.

1.3 Part-Time Appointees

Stipends for part-time positions should be calculated on a pro rata basis, unless otherwise approved by both the Congregation and Presbytery.

2. MANSE PROVIDED

If a manse is provided, $1,794 per month is to be deducted from the EPFB paid by the Congregation.

3. STIPEND SUPPLEMENT FOR MINISTRY STAFF ELIGIBLE FOR EPFB

Agreed payments above the basic stipend that have been approved by the Congregation, Presbytery and the Committee on Ministry Resourcing are to be paid by Treasurers as 50% cash and 50% EPFB. The Stipend supplement is to be determined as a percentage above minimum stipend and is only applied to the Stipend - Cash and EPFB. The payment of stipend supplements cannot be used to increase (or be based on) superannuation or ministry allowance.
